HOW DOES BRUW FUNDING WORK?

In order to be good stewards of the donor dollar, BRUW relies on help from local volunteers for the funding process.

Participation in the Community Investment Committee is one of the most important tasks a United Way volunteer can undertake. Through service on this committee, the volunteers join with others from the community to review the financial needs and the program activities of the United Way partner agencies.

These volunteers help Bartlesville Regional United Way ensure that the donor dollars are making a difference in our communities.
